WHAT THE 1:8 NIGHTS ARE ABOUT:

The One Eight (1:8) program is modeled after Life Teen's Confirmation preparation program. It involves monthly meetings on the third Sunday of the month from 6:30-8:30pm. Another component of the 1:8 program is the 1:8 day retreat and overnight retreat. Candidates are asked to attend each monthly 1:8 night along with either the one-day retreat or the overnight retreat in February.

*Parents are asked to participate by volunteering to help with at least one 1:8 night throughout the course of the year.

WE NEED THE CHURCH:

These 1:8 nights are not possible without the Church; those parents, teachers, sponsors and parishioners who volunteer their time and talent.

GET INVOLVED...

- FOOD: Plan & set-up food for meetings. (Specify if you'd like to donate, set-up, or organize the food for the program)
- ENVIRONMENT (set-up): Decorate, organize, plan, and set-up the room for the program night.
- CHAPERONE: If you can't fully commit to the small groups but still want to be there!
- SMALL GROUP LEADER: Share your faith on a "down-to-earth" level and commit to the monthly meetings.
- CORE TEAM MEMBER: Be involved in the planning and carrying-out of these nights on a committed level.
- SPEAKER: Planning and organizing the teaching for a 1:8 night which meets the curriculum guidelines of the program.
